

The Play and Drama Partnership

Neuro-Dramatic-Play & Embodiment-Projection-Role

A 3-Day Training for Practitioners and Therapeutic Trainees

8 - 10 January 2016

Engineers House, The Promenade, Clifton Down, Bristol, UK, BS8 3NB

This course gives an overview of NDP and EPR theory and application and introduces participants to NDP/EPR practice with vulnerable children and teenagers.

Participants will gain an understanding of NDP and EPR practice with application in educational and therapeutic contexts.

The course includes the use of messy and sensory play, art and dramatic play, movement, voice and rhythm. Please note that the course is mainly experiential.

Fees: £275 ('Early Bird' payment of £225 if paid before 1 November)

Fee includes: workbook, play and teaching materials, lunch, drinks and snacks

BACS payment preferred, please email drsuejennings@hotmail.com AND creativecareinternational@gmail.com for bank details.

Cheques should be payable to 'Dr Sue Jennings' and sent to:
NDP Course Administrator, 5 Market Street, Wells, Somerset, BA5 2DS

Full attendance on the course is credited with 20 CPD Points by PTUK (Ref. 1017)

www.playanddramapartnership.org

www.suejennings.com

